

RICH JEWELS TO PASTMASTERS

At Annual Festival of St. John the Evangelist.

BURNED FACTORY TO REBUILD

Miss Katherine Marshall Allen Becomes the Bride of Mr.
Benjamin Turner White.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Dec. 28.—Handsome pastmasters' jewels were presented last night by W. W. Pearson, district deputy grand master, and Charles E. Williamson, past master of Hainford Lodge, No. 3. The occasion was the annual festival of St. John the Evangelist and took place in the Masonic Hall, the fraternity being out in large numbers.

It is announced that the Southside Manufacturing Company, whose factory was burned Sunday, will rebuild as soon as possible, after adjustment of insurance.

ALLEN-WHITE.

Miss Katherine Marshall Allen, of this city, and Mr. Benjamin Turner White, of Jacksonville, Fla., were married last night at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, in the presence of many invited guests and friends and relatives of the bride couple.
The marriage was a scene of especially attractive beauty, the floral decorations of the church blending most beautifully with the Christmas wreaths and garlands. The bride was given away by her father, Miss Annie B. Allen, sister of the bride was a most attractive maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Willie White, of Norfolk, sister of the groom, Miss Virdie White Allen, of Petersburg, sister of the bride, and Miss Dessie Cary. The ushers were Messrs.
Andrew L. Allen, of Boston, brother of the bride; Stuart Kirby Allen, of Cincinnati; P. S. Beckwith, Jr., and John E.
Townes, Jr., of Petersburg. Two most attractive little children of Mr. and Mrs.
Orlando G. Hinton, held the ribbons. Rev.
Dr. O. S. Bunting, rector of St. Paul's, performed the ceremony, and Miss Mary Simmons, at the organ, rendered the wedding marches. After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride to the bridal party and visiting friends and relatives from New York, Washington, Alexandria and Norfolk.
The bride is the daughter of Mr. E. M.
Allen, who was formerly a prominent business man in this city and now lives in New York city.

The groom is claim agent for the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, at Jacksonville, Fla.

Among the visiting relatives of the bride couple are Mr. and Mrs. Parko White, of Norfolk, and Messrs. Robert T.
White and J. A. White, of New York, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E.
Townes.

MERRY THIRONG.

A merry throng of belles and beaux attended a Christmas dance at the Country Club to-night, given by members of the club.

At the Academy of Music last night Mrs. Charles H. Monahan, Beaucaire, captivated his audience, which applauded him enthusiastically.

GAME LAW ENFORCED.

Spotsylvania Merchant Fined for Shipping Game to Richmond.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Dec. 28.—

Mr. W. C. Reynolds, a merchant, of Tarkers, Spotsylvania county, shipped a box addressed to a merchant in Richmond a few days ago. The box was opened by Game Warden Aldridge, and besides some rabbits and turkeys, a number of partridges were found in it. The game warden reported the case and Reynolds was summoned for trial before a magistrate. He was fined $5 and costs.

citizens of Stafford went duck-shooting on the Potomac at Marlborough, a few days ago and killed thirty-seven ducks in a short time. One of the party killed fourteen at one shot.

The remains of Mr. Harvey Dent, formerly of Stafford county, at the time of his death a telegraph operator of the Spotsylvania county, who jumped from a train in the Potomac river and was drowned last Friday evening, was brought to his old home at Broad for burial. The deceased was a son of Mr. John E. Dent, of Stafford county, and his widow, who survives him, was a daughter of the late Mr.
Morton, of that county. It is believed that Dent jumped into the river through mistake, thinking the train had crossed the bridge into Washington, as his home was not far from the end of the bridge.

The Masons of this city, last night, elected Mr. A. Randolph Howard, Master of the Lodge H. I. O. O. F., Junior Warden; Dr. J. H. Burr, Junior Warden; J. M. W. Green, Treasurer; Captain S. J.
Quinn, Secretary; W. T. Dix, Tyler.

THE ROANOKE JAIL.

Not in Good Condition, But the Jailer Not to Blame.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, VA., December 28.—The jail commission met this morning in the Circuit Court court-room. Editor Addison of the Times, and A. Blair Antline, president of the Board of Aldermen, who have criticized the condition of the jail, testified that it was in a miserable condition. Chief of Police Dyer testified that the jail was in a state of repair.

At the close of the session, the commissioners adjourned until next week.

The jail is a two-story building, consisting of a main building and a rear wing. It was built in 1880, and has since that time been in a state of disrepair. The main building is in a state of ruin, and the rear wing is in a state of decay. The jail is in a state of repair, and the jailer is not to be blamed for the condition of the jail.

WASHINGTON A FIREMAN

Old Alexandria Company Prepare to Perpetuate Organization.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ALEXANDRIA, VA., Dec. 28.—The Friendship Veterans' Fire Association, of this city, which has, it is asserted, abundantly documentary evidence substantiating its claim to be the one fire company now in existence with which General Washington was actively associated, has elected a reorganization and has adopted plans for the preservation of the ancient associations of the company. The following officers have been elected for the ensuing year: E. E. Downham, president; F. P. Parr, vice-president; William T.

Emerson, treasurer, and Julian W. Williams, secretary. Several young men have been elected to the membership and the membership is one hundred or more.
President Downham has received a letter from one of the World's Fair commissioners, stating that some of the apparatus sent to St. Louis by the local association attracted more attention than any other exhibit in that class.

RAWLS ISSUES STATEMENT

Declares He Was Not in Right Mind When He Shot Father.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SUFFOLK, VA., December 28.—Luther

Edward Rawles, twenty-one years old, who is held for court upon his confession that he attempted to kill his father, Jesse E. Rawles, a merchant, with buckshot, and who also acknowledged that he obtained $500 on three forged checks, last night issued from jail a brief statement, in which he said: "I was not in my right mind at the time I would never have done such deeds."
Rawles will be tried in January without a jury.

NEGRO ASSASSINATED.

Fired on From Outside of House and Instantly Killed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOYDTON, VA., December 28.—Monday night Nathan Burgess assassinated Edmund Phillips at the house of Albert Over-burn. Phillips was sitting by a negro girl in Overburn's house about 6 o'clock, when Burgess fired at him from a short distance, killing Phillips instantly. Jealousy is said to have been the cause. Burgess has not been arrested and is in hiding.

Officers are looking for him. All the parties to the tragedy are colored.

Found Dead in Bed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., December 28.—John Pittman, a well known shoemaker, who was at one time a man of means, was found dead in his bed this morning at his boarding house on lower Main Street by a boy, who entered his room. The physicians ascribe the cause to congestion of the lungs. Mr. Pittman was forty-five years of age, and moved to this city shortly after the Civil War, and conducted a shoemaking establishment, from which he realized a large sum of money. He was married, and had a wife who followed him to Danville, where he died. Mr. Pittman was divorced from his wife eight years ago, on account of his drinking.

She is now living in Richmond, where she resides three married children of the divorced couple.

WEDDING DAY IN OLD VIRGINIA

Trinity Church, Lancaster, Va., Scene of Beautiful Ceremony.

MISS CHILTON A BRIDE

Weds Prof. Clarence Hall Dunaway, Principal of Richmond Academy—Other Marriages.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HEATHSVILLE, VA., December 28.—

One of the most brilliant events of the season in the social society of Northern Neck occurred this evening at Trinity Church, Lancaster Courthouse, when Miss Julia Gertrude Chilton became the bride of Professor Clarence Hall Dunaway, principal of the Richmond Academy, Richmond, Va. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the bride party entering to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, beautifully rendered by Miss Carrie Carter, Miss Lillian Crille sang "Always" very sweetly.

The ceremony was performed by the father of the groom, assisted by the Rev.
Thomas and Wayland Dunaway. The bride was given in white crepe de chine, with pearl ornaments, tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Laura Chilton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was point d'ray on blue tulle. The bridesmaids were Miss Grace D.
Pinckard, Fanny Jones, Chilton, Nancie Dunaway, Lillian Dunaway, Genevieve Bessie Combs and Genevieve Pinckard, who wore white muslin. Mr. Wilbur Pinckard was best man. The groomsmen were Messrs. Willard Hall, Merriam Chilton, Robert Chilton, Robert Norris, Chilton Pierce, C. P. Pearson, Carlton Hathaway.

The popularity of the young people was shown by many handsome presents. The bride and groom left for New York Friday for Richmond, Va., where they will reside.

TABLEAU WEDDING.

Beautiful Ceremony in First Presbyterian Church, Roanoke.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, VA., December 28.—The First Presbyterian Church was the scene this afternoon of the most brilliant and interesting marriage of the season. The contracting parties were Miss Julia Wed-dell Vaughan, daughter of Rev. Clement Weddell Vaughan, D. D., and Mr. Kirk Lunsford. The church was beautifully decorated for the happy event. The color scheme was red and green, holly, mistletoe and potted plants. The church was filled with red candles. The church was filled with friends of the couple. The marriage took place at 4 o'clock, when the bride party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride was given in white crepe de chine, with red and green ornaments, and a bouquet of red and green flowers. The bride's maid of honor was Miss Julia Wed-dell Vaughan, her sister, and the groom's best man was Mr. Kirk Lunsford, of Wise county. Little Miss Catherine Camp presented the bride, carrying a bouquet of white roses. The bride was followed by
